We The Senior Class of 1964

Dedicate Our Annual

to

Miss Dillehay

We, the Senior Class of 1964, do hereby dedicate this edition of the Crux-Hi-Skan to Miss Carolyn Deloras Dillehay, who devoted 43 1/2 years of her life to teaching in the Crooksville community.

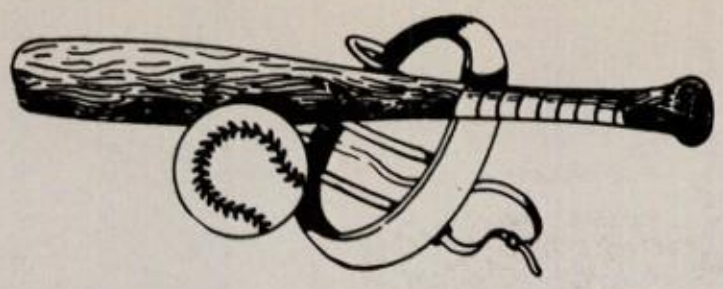
Miss Dillehay was graduated from Crooksville High School and received her Bachelor of Science degree in Education and her Masters' degree in History from Ohio University in Athens.

She collaborated with Mr. Collins of Worthington, Ohio, author of the history text, "Ohio, the Buckeye State," in which she provided study aids for the book. The text is used at C. H. S. and at many other high schools in Ohio.

Other than her teaching duties, Miss Dillehay has been very active in the advising and counseling fields.

We deeply appreciate all the interest and understanding she has shown us through our school years. It is with profound appreciation that we dedicate this edition of the Crux-Hi-Skan to her.

Linda Kay Lacey



Foreword

The combination of faculty, classes, activities, music, and sports makes for a well-rounded, happy life at Crooksville High School.

Under the guidance of our teachers we improve on our idea of living and learn to work together, striving for success and higher goals in life.

Classes are necessary in school life. Each day we pass through many different doors in order to further our horizons of knowledge and life.

Music, sports, and activities add to the enjoyment of our school life. Participation in these fields helps to improve our relations with others, thus making us, the students, better individuals.

The Senior Class of 1964 presents this edition of the Crux-Hi-Skan to you, the students, faculty, and friends of C. H. S., with the hope of giving you a bit of the "Life at Crooksville High School" to keep and cherish throughout the years to come.

Dear Sue,

I was just sitting here in the dress shop, and decided to write and bring you up to date on our former classmates. It hardly seems possible that ten years have gone by.

Susie Aichele is leader of the National Brownie Society. Karen Parsons recently was named No. 1 Homemaker of America. Jean Hall is a nurse on the "Ben Crazy" television show. Joan Willison is hiring babysitters of her own. Brenda Riggs is head cheerleader at Fairmont College. Cherly Inman, Terrie Steele, and April Williams own their own Corvettes and are working in Columbus. Pat Morrison is living proof of the slogan that "Blondes do have more fun." Susan Norton, Ellen Trussell, and Connie Dunwoody are all sending their children to the same nursery school. Sandy Wood and Mary Lou Allen have been touring the country with the Women's Harlem Globetrotters. Shirley Wayne's recording, "Giggles," just passed the million mark on the sales list. Joy Eveland is editing McCall's magazine. Louella Cherry has been secretary to Ohio governor, Harold Ansel, since his election last November. Donna Yoder is lifeguarding at Wakiki Beach in Hawaii. Mary Lee Alfman is shorthand teacher at Corning High School. Brenda Sparks and Judy Dusenberry have their own diamond mine in South Africa. Mary Kangas now has a job as secretary to the President of the United States. Molly Levering has her own florist shop. Charlie Adams and Robbie Miller are joint owners of the "Tots to Teens Shop." Jerry Buckley, Dennis Neff, and Jerry Baughman opened their Musketeer Act at the Cococabana Club in New York last night. I went to the show and they haven't lost any of their talent. Bruce Cryder and Jim Gordon own rival newspapers in Chicago. Terri Denman is kindergarten teacher at Crooksville's East School. Bob Hayman is advertising hair tonic on television and radio. Rosemary Hammond recently patented her new I.B.M. machine. Connie Hoops is head nurse at Bethesda Hospital. Fred Wiener is Bob Richardson's agent. Bob just received his tenth Gold Record. Rodger Whitehouse is an astronaut. He always was way out! Earl Stephenson is specializing in the repair of alarm clocks. Connie Sims is a nurse in Africa. Bryon Watts is selling Oldsmobiles. Daryll Mullen runs the Red & White Store in Crooksville. Wonder why? Dallas Swaro and Darron Kenny are runners-up for Mr. America. Dwayne Swinehart operates a Dairy Queen at New Lex. Dale Tolley recently bought out the American Broadcasting Corporation. He really came a long way. Bob Sidwell is a physicist at Cape Kennedy. Bob Sands manages the Crooksville Country Club. Goldie Rinehart just had her sixth child. She surely likes children! John Long won last year's PGA tournament. Judy Donaldson is breeding horses for the Kentucky Derby. Ron Frash is coach at Crooksville High. Doug Frecker is coaching the Women's Basketball Olympic Team. Jim Black owns his personal Ferrai racing team, and I heard that he is thinking about hiring Buddy White as his driver in next year's Grand Prix. Dian Adkins is a television announcer. Scott Locke recently reopened Winsor's Steak House, near his home in Maysville Heights. Joe Pickrell opened his doctor's practice last year. David Rambo is operating a jewelry store in Crooksville. Donnie Riggs is selling automobile insurance. Nancy Rutledge is a professor at Vassar. Henry Shirkey operates a dragstrip at Six-Mile Turn. May Jo Smith is a clarinet player in Lawrence Welk's band. Sandy Spangler has been voted the World's Shortest Redhead. Gary Sprankle is running a gas station. Connie Watts is operating a dance studio. Eugene Whaley is selling coal at San Toy. Emma Kay Moore owns the former King Ranch in Texas. Larry Musick finally has a car of his own. Sarah Spears is an artist in Greenwich Village. Dave Moore is now an All-American basketball star for Ohio State. Ronnie Channels, George Kinney, and Rick Hoskinson recently celebrated the grand opening of their department store at McLuney. Dean Alfman and Terry Dillinger now have their own Beatles wig shop. Carol Moore is now a high-fashion hair stylist in New York City. I saw her just last Thursday afternoon. Jack Dalrymple has been appointed Secretary of Agriculture. Jim McLean is managing the Little League baseball team for Crooksville and vicinity. Arlene Miller is a secretary at Nationwide Insurance in Columbus. Jim Lanning is an artist for Mad Magazine.

I must close for now. Please write and take care of yourself. Give my regards to Dave and all the children.

Love ya,

Susann J.

P.S. Stop in and see me anytime you are in New York City.

Receiving our class rings was the first big event of our junior year. We had several dances, and were in charge of the basketball programs for home games. Many of our boys were active in sports, and we were represented on the cheerleading squad and the band. We had our first class play and the big social event of the year - The Junior-Senior Prom.

M.V.L. State Champs

These following pages show how the Crooksville Ceramics won the M. V. L. league and was also classed as the finest class A team in Ohio. This is how the season went.

Sheridan-0 Crooksville-22

In season's opener Crooksville defeats Sheridan 22-0, with Crooksville's Junior speedster Steve Worthington scoring a pair of TDs and Jerry Baughman ran 15 yards for a second quarter Crooksville touchdown.

Roseville-0 Crooksville-16

Crooksville pounded out a 16-0 victory at Roseville in the Muskingum Valley League opener. Steve Worthington's three-yard scoring blast with 47 seconds to play gave defending championship team Crooksville a triumph over Roseville on the Ramblers' field.

New Concord John Glenn-0 Crooksville-34

Crooksville defending champions belted visiting New Concord John Glenn gridders 34-0 in Muskingum Valley League play. Steve Worthington and Jerry Baughman each scored a pair of TDs. Worthington scored on runs of seven and three yards while Jerry Baughman's TDs came on a three-yard plunge and a 40-yard return of an intercepted pass. Dennis Neff raced 18 yards for the fifth Ceramic TD, also scored a pair of two point conversions.

Hard-hitting Crooksville defense never allowed the Muskies across the Ceramic 35 yard line as Ron Frash and Jerry Buckley showed the way.

Dresden-6 Crooksville-8

Ceramics edge Hawks 8-6 in grid battle. Ceramics did all of their damage in the first quarter of play when they drove 70 yards in seven plays to score with Jerry Baughman racing the final 32-yards to paydirt. Dave Rambo's 24-yard run on a quarterback keeper play helped spark the touchdown drive for the Ceramics. Leading the Crooksville defense were Jerry Buckley and Terry Musick.

Philo-6 Crooksville-20

Fifth straight win for Ceramics. Quarterback Dave Rambo connected on two scoring passes and Steve Worthington plunged for another for the Ceramics. Rambo hit Jerry Baughman on a 70-yard scoring play. Rambo uncorked a seven-yard aerial to Dennis Neff and Worthington plunged for the final six-pointer and then ran for two more tallies. Jerry Buckley led the Crooksville defensive unit with 15 tackles while teammates Bob Richardson and Ron Frash had 10 and 9 respectively.

Maysville-14 Crooksville-41

Steve Worthington blasted through the Maysville defense for four touchdowns as the Ceramics cruised to a 41-14 M. V. L. victory. Dennis Neff ran six yards for another Crooksville score and Bill Clark's one-yard plunge was the final insurance tally. Fred Shelton, Dallas Swaro and Mike Sherlock were outstanding in the offensive line.

M & M-8 Crooksville-26

Steve Worthington scampered 12 yards to paydirt and then ran for the two pointer. The second half, Ceramic defense came alive and put the stops to the Big Red. Led by Jerry Buckley, Bob Richardson, Ron Frash and Fred Shelton the Crooksville defense scored two TDs and helped set up a third. Baughman and Worthington each scored a touchdown by recovering Big Red fumbles in the End zone.

New Lexington-0 Crooksville-28

Steve Worthington scored all four touchdowns for Crooksville and caught a pass for one of the two point conversions. Frash intercepted a New Lexington pass with 40 seconds to play in the first half to set up Crooksville's second tally. Dave Rambo passed to Bob Richardson for 33 yards to the two. Worthington then bulled across for the TD and caught the two point pass. Crooksville's entire defensive platoon held New Lexington time and time again.

Jerry Baughman turned in a tremendous performance in covering Panthers Stan Schdmit. Other key men in the Ceramics defense were linebacker Jerry Buckley, middle guard Terry Musick, ends Ron Frash, Bob Richardson, Gene Russell, Jeff Williams and Joe Alexander.
